

Hoover-Vestavia Soccer is joining the DPL!

1. What is the DPL?

DPL is the Girls playing platform (league) for the top youth soccer clubs around the country. Clubs must be admitted to the league and must meet many specific competitive criteria.

2. Is DPL different from the NPL?

Yes. DPL is a different organization that has some of the same teams. Many of the NPL clubs including HVS wanted a higher level of competition so they moved to the DPL.

3. Why did HVS change leagues for Fall 2021?

We are always striving to improve what we offer our players. We have the best coaches in the state. We have the best players in the state. We have the best facilities in the state. Now we will have a better level of competition.

4. Do college coaches scout games in the DPL?

YES! Division I coaches are constantly watching games from around the league. The regional and national showcases are always well attended.

5. When are tryouts?

Tryouts will be held on May 15 & 16, 2021. We will announce locations and times in the next few days. Registration for tryouts is open thru our website:

6. Will there be ID Dates for DPL?

Yes, Saturday, April 3 will be an ID Date for 2010, 2009, 2008, and 2007 age groups. Sunday, May 9 will be an ID Date for 2010-2003 age groups. Times and locations will be announced soon.

7. When is the DPL season?

Practices will begin in August. League games will likely begin in late August or early September. The league has not yet announced the full schedule. Practices and games will run from September through January.

8. Does DPL conflict with the High School season?

No. DPL will finish before the High School season for 2007 thru 2003 age groups.

9. What will the travel schedule be like?

We expect the travel to be similar to what HVS teams experienced this past season. Away games will be played mostly in Georgia and the Carolinas. Showcase events may be in Florida, or elsewhere. Until the league schedule is announced, we cannot be 100% sure of the travel.

10. What other Alabama clubs will be playing in the DPL?
